CONSTITUTION and BY - LAWS of the WISCONSIN SPORT TRUCKS
(A non-profit organization)

ARTICLE 1 Election of Officers

Section 1: Protocol of Elections Nominations for all offices will be taken from the current members of the club. All nominees must be a current member (See definition of member in ARTICLE IV, Section 5) in good standings and have been a member in good standing the year previous of being nominated. Upon acceptance of the nomination, all nominees will be placed on a ballot for each office up for election. There also must be a place on the ballot for a write in vote for any person whom wishes to run as a write in candidate. The persons nominated will have the opportunity to address the club body of their intentions for the office, if they so chose. Any person whom wishes to run as a write in candidate will also be given the opportunity to present themselves and their intentions of office to the club body. The candidates for President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer receiving the majority of the votes being cast shall be declared elected to their respective offices.

Section 1A: Offices of President and Treasurer During even numbered years these respective offices are for the duration of a two (2) year term. The election for the offices of President and Treasurer shall be held at the regular club meeting held on the third Wednesday of the first meeting in the off season.

Section 1B: Offices of Vice President and Secretary During odd number years these respective offices are for the duration of a two (2) year term. The election for the offices of Vice President and Secretary shall be held at the regular club meeting held on the third Wednesday of the first meeting in the off season.

Section 2: The officers so elected to the positions of President and Treasurer shall be installed to their respective office at the end of their term. If prior to the end of their term the newly elected President resigns, the acting Vice President takes office. Nominations for a new Vice-President shall be taken at the next two(2) club functions thereafter. At the next club function following the completion of nominations, a vote will be taken and the candidate receiving the majority of the votes being cast shall be elected for the remainder of the term.

Section 2A: The officers so elected to the positions of Vice President and Secretary shall be installed to their respective office at the end of their term. If prior to the end of their term the newly elected Secretary resigns, nominations for a new Secretary shall be taken at the next two(2) club functions thereafter. At the next club function following the completion of nominations, a vote will be taken and the candidate receiving the majority of the votes being cast shall be elected for the remainder of the term.

Section 2B: Any resignation by an officer will be submitted to all presiding officers in a formal letter.

Section 3. A vacancy in any office, except President, will be filled by nominations at the next two(2) club functions, and then a vote at the following club function.

Section 4. The officers reserve the right to interpret all set rules and regulations regarding all club functions previously voted upon.
